(c) Where a post is to be filled in by more than one method as prescribed in the rules or schedule, the apportionment of vacancies, determined under clause (a) above, to each such method shall be done maintaining the prescribed proportion for the over-all number of posts already filled in. If any fraction of vacancies is left over after apportionment of the vacancies in the manner prescribed above, the same shall be apportioned to the quota of various methods prescribed in a continuous cyclic order giving precedence to the promotion quota.

(2) The Appointing Authority shall also determine the vacancies of earlier years yearwise which were required to be filled in by promotion, if such vacancies were not determined and filled earlier in the year in which they were required to be filled in."

10. Age:-- A candidate for direct recruitment to junior posts enumerated in the schedule must have attained the age of 21 years and must not have attained the age of 35 years on the first day of January following the last date fixed for the receipt of applications;

Provided--

(1) that the upper age limit mentioned above, shall be relaxed by 5 years in the case of women candidates and candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes;

(2) that the upper age limit mentioned above, shall not apply in the case of ex-prisoner who had served under Government on a substantive basis on any post before his conviction & was eligible for appointment under the rules;

(3) that the upper age limit mentioned above, shall be relaxed by a period equal to the term of imprisonment served in the case of ex-prisoner who was not overage before his conviction and was eligible for appointment under the rules;

(4) that the Government may, if it is satisfied that there is a paucity of suitable candidates for recruitment to the posts of Assistant Engineer,
Mechanical & Electrical, relax the upper age limit in their cases upto 45 years;

(5) that the Cadet Instructors shall be allowed to deduct from their actual age the period of service rendered by them in the N.C.C and if the resultant age does not exceed the maximum age limit prescribed above by more than three years, they shall be deemed to be within the prescribed age limit;

(6) that the persons appointed temporarily to a post in the service shall be deemed to be within the age limit, had they been within the age limit when they were initially appointed even though they have crossed the age limit, when they appear finally before the Commission and shall be allowed upto two chances had they been eligible as such at the time of their initial appointment.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained contrary in these rules in the case of persons serving in connection with the affairs of the State in substantive capacity, the upper age limit shall be 40 years for direct recruitment to posts filled in by competitive examinations or in case of posts filled in through the Commission by interview. This relaxation shall not apply to urgent temporary appointments.

(8) "that the Released Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers after released from the Army shall be deemed to be within the age-limit even though they have crossed the age-limit when they appear before the Commission had they been eligible as such at the time of joining the Commission in the Army.

(9) "that there shall be no age limit in the case of widows and divorced women.

Explanation:- That in the case of widow, she will have to furnish a certificate of death of her husband from the Competent Authority and in case of divorce, she will have to furnish the proof of divorced."

+25. “Revised Criteria, Eligibility and Procedure for Promotion to Junior, Senior and other posts encadred in the

* Substituted for Rule 25 “Revised Criteria, Eligibility and Procedure for Promotion to Junior, Senior and other posts encadred in the Service:—

(1) Selection for promotion in the regular line of promotion from the post not included the Service to the lowest post or category of post in the Service shall be strictly on the basis of merit.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (4), selection for promotion from the lowest post or category of post in the Service to the next higher post or category of post in the Service and for all posts up to Scale No. 11, sanctioned under the Rajasthan Civil Services (New Pay Scales) Rules, 1969 or equivalent scales as may be declared by the Government from time to time, shall be made solely on the basis of seniority-cum-merit from amongst the persons who have passed the qualifying examination, if any, prescribed under these Rules, and have put in at least five years service, unless a different period is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post or category of post from which selection is to be made;

Provided that in the event of non-availability of the persons with the requisite period of service of five years, the Committee may consider the persons having less than the prescribed period of service, if they fulfil the qualifications, experience and other conditions for promotion prescribed elsewhere in these rules and are found otherwise suitable for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit.

Provided further that in respect of posts that included in the State Services in which the methods of recruitment to the lowest post provides for appointment by promotion, and where such posts are required to be filled on the basis of seniority-cum-merit under this sub-rule the Committee may select for promotion such persons of outstanding merit available within the zone of consideration, who may not be selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit, to the extent of one fourth of the number of vacancies to be filled in by promotion and if the number of vacancies exceeds one but is less than four, the Committee may select one person on the basis of merit alone and if the vacancies are more than four and the calculation of the number of vacancies to be filled by merit alone according to the aforesaid basis results in a fraction. The Committee may select one more person against a fraction of half or more. On being so selected, for the purpose of determination of seniority, such persons shall be deemed to have been selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit.

(3) Selection for promotion to all other higher posts or higher categories of posts in the service shall be made on the basis of merit alone.

(4) Selection for promotion to the highest post or highest category of post in the service shall always be made on the basis of merit alone.

(5) The persons having been selected and appointed by promotion to a post of category of post on the basis of merit, shall be eligible for promotion to the next higher post or category of post, which is to be filled in by merit, only when they have been put after regular selection at least five years service, unless a higher period of service is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post or category of post from which selection is to be made:
Provided that the condition of five years service shall not be applicable to a person if any person junior to him is eligible for consideration for promotion on the basis of merit:

Provided further that in the event of non-availability of persons, equal to the number of vacancies to be filled in eligible for promotion in the category of posts next lower from which promotion is made, the Committee may consider the persons less than five years service if they are found otherwise eligible and suitable for promotion on the basis of merit alone.

Explanation— If any doubt arises about the categorisation of the post as the lowest, next higher or highest post in the Service, the matter shall be referred to in the Department of Personnel, whose decision thereon shall be final.

(6) The zone of eligibility for promotion shall be five times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or merit, as the case may be:

Provided that in case of non-availability of sufficient number of suitable persons for selection on the basis of merit, the Committee may at its discretion consider persons of outstanding merit outside the zone of eligibility but falling within six times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of merit.

(7) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this rule, the conditions of eligibility for promotion, constitution of the Committee and procedure for selection shall be the same as prescribed elsewhere in these Rules.

(8) The Committee shall consider the cases of all the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified for promotion to the class of posts concerned under these Rules, interviewing such of them as it may deem necessary, and shall prepare a list containing names of the suitable persons equal to the number of existing vacancies and the vacancies anticipated to occur during the next twelve months after the determination of vacancies. The Committee shall also prepare a separate list containing names of persons equal to 50% of the persons selected in the aforesaid list or select one more person if the number of vacancies is one only, who may be considered suitable to fill temporary or permanent vacancies, which may occur till the next meeting of the Committee, on a temporary or officiating basis and the list so prepared shall be reviewed and revised every year and shall remain in force until it is so reviewed and revised. The lists so prepared on the basis of merit shall be arranged in order of preference and the list prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit shall be arranged in order of seniority on the category of post from which selection has been made. Such lists shall be sent to concerned Appointing Authority together with the Annual Confidential Rolls and Personal Files of the candidates included in them as also of those not selected, if any.

Explanation— The list of preference shall classify the officers in order as, 'Outstanding', 'Very Good' on the basis of merit. In each class the officers shall maintain their interse seniority of the next below grade.

(9) Where consultation with the Commission is necessary the lists prepared by the Committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing Authority along with the personal files and Annual Confidential Rolls of the persons whose names have been considered by the Committee.

(10) The Commission shall consider the list prepared by the Committee along with other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority, and, unless any change considered necessary shall approve the lists. In case the Commission consider it necessary to make any change in the lists received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority of the change proposed by it. After taking into account the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modifications, as may, in its opinion, be just and proper and when the Appointing Authority is an authority subordinate to the Government the lists approved by the Commission should be disturbed only with the approval of the Government.

(11) Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under the preceding sub-rule (10) in the order in which they have
Service:—(1) As soon as the Appointing Authority determines the number of vacancies under rule regarding determination of vacancies of these rules and decides that a certain number of posts are required to be filled in by promotion, it shall, subject to provisions of sub-rule (9), prepare a correct and complete list of the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified under these rules for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit to the class of posts concerned.

(2) The persons enumerated in column 5 or the relevant column regarding “post from which promotion is to be made”, as the case may be, of the relevant Schedule shall be eligible for promotion to posts specified against them in column 2 thereof to the extent indicated in column 3 subject to their possessing minimum qualifications and experience on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection as specified in column 6 or in the relevant column regarding “minimum qualification and experience for promotion”, as the case may be.

Provided that for first promotion in the Service if number of persons substantively appointed and confirmed on the lowest post, equal to the number of vacancies, are not available then persons who have been appointed to the lowest post in the Service after selection in accordance with one of the methods of recruitment prescribed under these rules, shall also be eligible if they fulfill other conditions of eligibility.”

(3) No person shall be considered for first promotion in the Service unless he is substantively appointed and confirmed on the lowest post in the Service. After first promotion in the Service, for subsequent promotions to higher posts in the Service, a person shall be eligible if he has been appointed to such post from which promotion is to be made after selection in accordance with one of the methods of recruitment under any Service less in the case of those appointed by promotion where the period of probation prescribed is less, on the post or a higher post under the same Appointing Authority or would have so worked but for his deputation or training, shall on the concurrence of permanent vacancies be entitled to be treated as confirmed if the same conditions as are prescribed under the Rules for the confirmation of a probationer are fulfilled subject to the quota prescribed under the Rules and in accordance with his seniority:

Provided that if the employee has failed to give satisfaction or has not fulfilled any of the conditions prescribed for confirmation such as passing of Departmental Examination, training or promotion cadre course etc., the aforesaid period may be extended as prescribed for the probation or under the Rajasthan Civil Services (Departmental Examination) Rules, 1959 and any other rules; or by one year, whichever is longer. If the employee still fails to fulfil the prescribed conditions or fails to give satisfaction, he will be liable to be discharged from such post in the same manner as a probationer or reverted to his substantive or lower posts, if any, to which he may be entitled.

Provided further that no person shall be debarred from confirmation after the said period of service if no reasons to the contrary about the satisfactory performance of his work are communicated to him in the said period.

(b) The reasons for not confirming an employee referred to in the second proviso to clause
(a) shall, in the case of a non-gazetted employee, be also immediately recorded by the
